Part of Suit Case in the Boston Mystery

WAS FOUND LAST NIGHT

Police Think That Two Cases Were Used in Disposing of the Body of the Woman—Baltimore Woman Asks to See the Torso.

Boston, Sept. 30.—Miss Nathan, the daughter of Mrs. Louis Nathan of Baltimore, came here yesterday and requested the police to show her the torso of the woman which was washed ashore in a dress suit case near the Winthrop yacht club on Thursday of last week.

Miss Nathan is a sister of Mrs. Maurice Schapiro, who has been missing for nearly three weeks. Mrs. Schapiro is the wife of a former West End doctor, who has also been missing for some time.

Last night two fishmongers of T. Wharf, this city, found the upper part of a dress suit case in the water close to the wharf piling. The police theory is that two suit cases were employed in the disposal of the body.

Chief Shaw of the state police announced that after a careful examination they were prepared to assert the strap, bound to the dress suit case in which a part of the woman's body was found at Winthrop, was taken from the second suit case, for which the police are now searching. This conclusion not only will connect the two dress suit cases, but strengthens the pawnbroker's identification of the case which is in possession of the authorities.

CAPTURED 200 MEN.

Pool Room in New York Was Raided Yesterday.

New York, Sept. 30.—Police with axes chopped their way through the walls into a pool room in University place yesterday and captured 200 men in the room.

This raid followed upon an appeal which Police Commissioner McAdoo made Thursday to the Western Union Telegraph company and to the New York Telephone company for assistance in locating the pool rooms.

A squad of police waited near the place while a detective entered and placed bets on the races. Having obtained this evidence, he signalled two other detectives who were in hiding on a neighboring roof, which overlooked a window of the pool room. Crawling along window ledges, these two officers reached the window where they had seen the signal and jumped into the room. The trio of detectives with drawn revolvers then held 200 patrons of the place at bay, themselves captured with their own prisoners, locked inside of a system of doors which had been bolted as the officers jumped through the window.

For half an hour the imprisoned detectives stood off an angry, threatening crowd, while the squad of police outside chopped at the doors. The walls proved to be more yielding than the steel-ribbed doors, and the police finally entered by cutting a hole through the plaster.

KILLED IN AUTO CRASH.

Three Men Lost Their Lives Near Syracuse, N. Y., Last Night.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 30.—A fatal automobile accident occurred in the village of Camillus, nine miles west of here at eight o'clock last night, resulting in the death of the chauffeur and two of the three other members of the party. The fourth, who escaped injury, refused to reveal the names of his companions or to give details of the accident.

The car, which was a large one, bore the Massachusetts Automobile No. 4,083. It was of the E. R. Thomas make of Buffalo, which city it is said the party left yesterday morning and were traveling at a pace to make Syracuse. Just west of the entrance to Camillus there is a steep hill, and in descending this it is supposed the chauffeur lost control of the car, which crashed into the curb, rolled over in the gutter and exploded.

The chauffeur, whose name is said to be Barth, and to reside in Massachusetts, was pinioned under the car and received fatal injuries. The car was burned.

The two injured members of the party are at the house of Dr. Clegg in Camillus.

POUNDED EYE TO PULP.

But Langford Didn't Get Decision Over Peter Jackson.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 30.—Sam Langford of Boston and Young Peter Jackson of California met in a 15-round bout last night. The former twice claimed foul, which Referee O'Hara did not see. Jackson depended almost entirely upon in-fighting, striking only three straight blows, and repeatedly holding and punching after being ordered to break. After Langford had pounded Jackson's left eye to a pulp and hammered him with straight hand blows almost at will throughout the 15 rounds, the referee called it a draw.

RESPECTED BETHEL MAN.

Peter M. O'Connell Died Yesterday Aged 78 Years.

Bethel, Sept. 30.—In the death yesterday of Peter M. O'Connell Bethel loses one of its staunch adopted sons. For forty-seven years Mr. O'Connell has resided here and all that time had been in the employ of Irvin Weston, wheelwright trade—Ephraim Weston succeeding his father thirty-one years ago. Mr. O'Connell was at work last week Thursday at his bench, but on returning home in the afternoon suffered some pain and finally a shock. In the interim since he has been known and conversed with his family.

He was born in Ballyshirre, Ireland, June 21, 1829, where he attended the village schools until he was fourteen years old, when he began his apprenticeship with his brother, serving five years. In August, 1848 he sailed from Lime-Quebec after a voyage of thirty-eight days from whence he migrated to Randolph, this state, and there remained with a brother a few years following his trade of carriage making.

In 1868 Mr. O'Connell married Miss Joanna Kelly of Randolph and made his abode in Bethel. To them two children were born, Mary (Mrs. John Bourke of Somerville, Mass.) and Josephine (Mrs. Edward A. Davis, wife of cashier Davis of the local bank), who with Mrs. O'Connell survive the deceased. By close attention to business Mr. O'Connell made a good competence, a faithful record, and a name of which not to be ashamed.

Funeral will occur from his late residence on Sunday afternoon.

ASSAILANT IS KNOWN.

He Tried to Carry Off a Rutland Woman.

Rutland, Sept. 30.—The identity of the man who assaulted Hannah Kent and Miss Harriet Harris on North Main street the night of August 23 has been established by the police, although the name is withheld, as the man has left the state. It has also been learned that the fellow is a lover of Miss Kent, whom she refused to recognize, and who attempted to compel her to go with him. She broke away from him the first time, but he concealed himself near her home expecting that she would come again. When Miss Harris came along the man mistook her for Miss Kent and assaulted her, attempting to chloroform her, but she broke away from him after a desperate struggle. The announcement by the police that the man had no intention of assaulting anyone but Miss Kent will undoubtedly do much to quiet the fears of the women who have to be on the streets after dark.

WANTED TO SEE HER HANGED

Williams, Charged With Murder, Hanked For Execution

HE SOUGHT PERMISSION

Of Warden E. D. Harpin That He Might Witness Execution of Mary Rogers—Murder Trial Is About Ended.

Burlington, Sept. 30.—E. D. Harpin of Windsor, formerly a warden at the state prison, who resigned not long ago, and one whose name is recalled in connection with the recent official investigation of the state prison, was a witness for the state in rebuttal in the Williams murder trial in county court yesterday afternoon.

He testified that Williams was brought to the state prison or safe keeping and that he had an opportunity for observing him. He said Williams appeared sane to him and had no hallucinations to his knowledge during his stay there. He did not talk much.

On the cross examination he said that Williams asked him once for permission to see Mary Rogers hanged.

Turnkey Quinn said that Williams appeared sane enough at the jail and although the witness had conversed with him frequently there were never any statements made relative to hearing voices or seeing spirits.

F. H. Grover, night watchman at the state insane hospital, said that Williams made no disturbance at that institution during the nights he was confined there with one exception, and that was nothing serious.

Dr. W. L. Wasson, of the staff at the state insane hospital, testified that Williams was capable of understanding right from wrong and said that he was not insane.

The case was practically ended today.

BASE BALL CASE NULL.

Rutland Association Gets the Money Which Was Attached.

Rutland, Sept. 30.—In the city court case arising from the attachment of gate receipts of one of the baseball games by the Lator brothers, proprietors of The Bardwell, for hotel bills alleged due them for board of players, the plea of abatement put in by Attorney E. H. O'Brien, counsel for the association, was sustained, and thereby the money, which has been in the hands of Enos C. Fish, subsequent to the attachment, reverts to the association. It is probable that the case will go either to the county or the supreme court.

The grounds on which the case has arrived at this stage are that no one was legally summoned into court by the writ which was made out against "The Rutland Baseball Association, a partnership," whereas the association is a corporation under the state of Vermont.

The plea of abatement prayed the writ be quashed, and as City Judge Willis M. Ross sustained the plea, the case is brought. The moment the original writ became void the money reverted to the association.

CHILDREN HAD A PARTY.

Mrs. F. B. Mudgett Presented Beautiful Gift.

The mothers of the Mothers' Society, I. M. M. A., entertained their children last evening in the K. of C. hall. Those having birthdays in July, August and September formed a line at 7.30 o'clock and received very prettily, the young-est one being Master Wendell Ahern, only five years old. The ushers seated them at 8 o'clock in chairs reserved. The programme was then announced and was carried out as follows:

Trio. Misses Hooker and Morse
Hoop Drill. Eight young ladies
Song. William McLeod
Reading. Elizabeth Young
Song. Miss May Carson
Song. Miss Beatrice Callaghan
Song. Norton Leverau

The most important feature of the programme was the presentation speech by Miss Mildred Ahern, who presented Mrs. F. B. Mudgett, on behalf of the children of the Mothers' Society, a beautiful hand-painted china water pitcher, painted by Mrs. F. H. Rogers. Her words were: "My dear Mrs. Mudgett—In behalf of the children of the Mothers' Society, I have been chosen to thank you for your kindness to use. Two years ago you were as kind as a mother could be in our dancing school. It was you who saw that we were wrapped warm before leaving the hall. It was through your efforts that our Mothers' Society was organized. You wanted we should make model men and women and now we want to show to you our appreciation, and to do so I will present this little gift as a token of love and esteem, and you will always be kindly remembered by the children of the Mothers' Society."

Mrs. Mudgett was too much overcome to respond, only with tears, but oftentimes tears speak louder than words. At 9.30 cake and ice cream were served. Mr. and Mrs. Elmore furnished music and were more than welcomed by the children. The party broke up at 11 o'clock and all declared a good time. Those who did the honors are: Mrs. Carson, Willie McLeod, Lester Curlew, Helen Parker, Elizabeth and Walter McElroy, Edmond Resaside, Florence Slayton, Alexander Smith, Paul Bugbee, Ira Houston, Elizabeth Hoar, Wendell Ahern, Earl Hutchins, Bertina Hooker, Loretta Miles, Mary Wells, Hazel Wheeler, Carol Smith, Bernice Hoar, Mildred Ahern, Lizzie Young, Grace Barclay, Elmer Mudgett, Shirley McNeil, Gerald Brook, Harry Dale, Ruth Morse, Fordyce Jackson, Gladys Bradford, Gertrude Slayton, Joana Smith, Richard Hoar.

Much credit is due to Mrs. Carson, who drilled the young ladies. They were obliged to respond twice. Mrs. Carson received a rising vote of thanks.

IS WANTED
IN BARRE

Fred Harriot is Said to Be a Swindler.

ARRESTED IN SYRACUSE.

Alleged That He Took Several Local Business Men in With His Confidence Games—Known Also as Frank Smith.

St. Albans, Sept. 30.—Fred Harriot, who had a brief residence here during the summer, during which time he bought out the New Idea milk store from Silas Pelkey and managed to fleece several people, and who afterward got safely away, has been arrested and is now lying in the Syracuse, N. Y., jail awaiting the action of the grand jury which sits in October.

Harriot, who comes from a respectable family and formerly lived in Georgia, is about 24 years old and has developed into a slick swindler. He went to Barre, where he duped several business men by his confidence games, coming here from that city. His stay here was brief, but in the few days he put in here, he took in several business men for various amounts. He was arrested here but jumped his bail and State's Attorney Warren R. Austin, who had several criminal cases against him, has been tracing his man and finally located him in Syracuse, where he was arrested after working a swindling game.

Harriot gave the name of Frank Smith when operating in Syracuse, where he successfully passed a forged check for $30, and becoming bolder by this success, tried another for $500, when he was apprehended.

When the New York State people are through with him, he will be brought back to Vermont, where several parties in Barre and this city will prosecute him.

Postmaster and Mrs. E. W. Bisbee Give Musicales—A Surprise for Mrs. Bisbee.

Postmaster and Mrs. E. W. Bisbee entertained a house full of friends to a musicale at their home on East street last evening, although the affair was in the nature of a surprise to Mrs. Bisbee, whose birthday it was. Mrs. Bisbee passed the day visiting friends in Montpelier and was wholly unaware of what was going on until she received word early last evening that she was wanted at home, and the view of the lighted house which greeted her return was the first intimation she had of the gathering.

The house had been put in readiness for the event during the day, the Philomathian club, of which Mrs. Bisbee is a member furnishing the flowers for the occasion. She was most heartily welcomed to her own home, and when she had recovered from her surprise and turned the tables and welcomed her guests, a musical programme of nine numbers was given by Miss Alice N. Averill, pianist; Benjamin Roberts, violin; Miss Florence H. Walker, soprano; Lyle H. Perry, cello, and Miss Annie Inglis, accompanist. Each number was charmingly rendered and evoked the heartiest applause.
